

From July 11th 2016

From 2016, The yellow fever vaccination certification was valid for life.

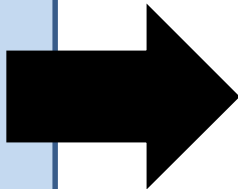

This is an announcement that the yellow fever vaccination change effective date.

Life of person vaccinated

Effective period.

Until July 11th 2016.
Valid for 10 years from 10 days after vaccination.

From July 11th 2016.
Effective 10 days after vaccination for life.

The certificate you have now that is 10 years old does not need to de renewed.

Please keep the certificate in a safe place for the rest of your life so that you do not lose it.

The traveler who visit to surround yellow fever endemic countries recommend to take a vaccine.

What is yellow fever?
The yellow fever is infection that bitten a mosquito to body by having a yellow fever virus.
Fever, Chills, and other symptoms.
After December 2015, Many cases of yellow fever patients has been reported, In particularly in Angola in southern Africa.

What is yellow fever vaccination?
There are effective vaccination against yellow fever.
Currently, In addition to countries where yellow fever is endemic.
Neighboring countries may also require a vaccination certificate at the time of entry.

Search Forth for more information.

Forth 黄熱